Some Baseball Talk

By HALF NELSON.

The news that Hale's suspension has been lifted by the Coit management yesterday because Morrissey was called away on account of the death of his sister was received with a feeling aking to relief by a great many of the fans. Hale is too good a man to let go, and yet it could hardly be doped out how the matter was going to be settled. Even now he is back only for at ime, late the way and it may be that at the end of next week the situation will be the same as it was yesterday.

There mews that Hale's suspension has pitching in great form all the way through the nine innings.

Mullaney was mighty peevish about nonething yesterday during the first innings. He couldn't go past the umper without saying something to save his life. What it was, was hard to discover, but it sounded like he didn't like the umpy decisions.

No, gentle fanny, the black eyesthat players sport about the diamond on not come in fisticuffs between the teams.

Morrissey would have got a much greater measure of applaces vesterday if the fans had known under what difficulties he was pitching. Going on with the game after hearing of the death of his sister, and holding himself together as he did, was really heroic, and his courage should be recognized.

It was also with some great degree of satisfaction that a bit of bone-headedness was observed in the way Norfolk ran bases yesterday. Tiedman's little nap at second base was delicious, and there were some other instances, of course not so bad, that made the old fans sit up and allow that the Colts were not the only players in the Colts were not the only players in the world to fall down on the bags.

Judge Yeatman has returned. He heard the call of a frenzied populace and forsook the by-ways of commerce for the honorable position of returner of passed balls. Yesterday he was back at his old stand, with a smile of quiet satisfaction occasionally lighting up his judicial countenance. The lure of commerce, with the clink of gold, almost swerved kim from the path of duty, but when his country called forth, forth came the judge.

Cowan had an eff-day with his throw-ing arm yesterday, and he didn't con-nect with second base as he should have done. No barm was done, how-ever, except to the feelings of the fans, and all went well

There is a little section in the base-ball rule book that has been overlooked so often and so continually that very few people know that it is there. It regards coachers. The new garage of the Richmond Motor of the remarks only to the base runners, and expressly forbids anything being done to arouse esthusiasm among the spectators or ratile the players. This rule is always violated, and in some cases, such as occurred yesterday when Busch was benched for talking too much to the pitcher, the coacher makes himself obnoxious. Umpire Davis keeps a rather tight eye on this matter, but he does not follow the rule strictly.

Bull Oter secupied the limelight for

Bill Otey occupied the limelight for a short while yesterday as a base runner. He stærted from first to seed on after the ball had been thrown, and when Cowin started to throw to second neither Landgraff nor Baker was there to receive it. Otey made the station without the slightest opnesition. position.

Although three runs were made yesterday, the first one that broke the ice came whin Morrissey landed on the ball for a stinging drive to centre field. He won his own game, after Sorry Game at Wilmington.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Wilmington, N. C., June 2.—What is conceded to be the sorriest game of baseball ever played on the local diamond was the opening game between Raleigh and Wilmington this afternoon, which went to the former, 14 to 5. Wilmington used three pitchers, but the visitors pounded them all, for a total of twenty-two hits.

Motor Car Talk

The distribution of 1910 licenses for utomobiles was begun yesterday in the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, and every car in the State monwealth, and every car in the State will have to get a new number before June 15. The Gordon Motor Company arrived first in the office, and license No. 1 was issued to one of the cars belonging to that company.

The new numbers are red, against a white field, with "Va. 1910" in smaller letters at the right of the number. It is thought that the red and white tags will be easier to discern at night than the blue and white ones used until now have been. The office of the Secretary of the Commonweal'h will be tolerably busy from now until the end of the month with the work of distributing 5,000 licenses. uting 5,000 licenses.

The Speedwell Auto Company delivered two touring cars yesterday to Cleveland Wright and C. W. Flin, of Petersburg, and one to George Pas-Petersburg, and o chall, of this city.

Virginia will be represented in the Atlanta to New York endurance run this season by J. H. Marsteller, of Roanoke, who has entered his Ghalmers "30" for that contest.

Issuing Auto Numbers.

Secretary of the Commonwealth B. O. James yesterday began the issuance of official automobile numbers. The law is not effective until June 15, but law of the fact that more than 103 applications have already been received, applications have already been received. The law is thought best to get them out in advance. There is a penalty for every car run in this State after that date without one of these plates art ached. The plates are of steel, painted white, with the numbers in large red letters.
